September 25, 2009

United States Attorney Joe Stecher and the Nebraska State Patrol announce the following information for the attention of the media:

Event Triggering this Release:

Jeremy Noe, age 26 of Omaha, was sentenced for distributing and possessing child pornography. The Honorable Joseph F. Bataillon sentenced Noe to eighty-four months imprisonment. After his release from federal prison, Noe will begin a five-year term of supervised release.

Investigation by the Nebraska State Patrol resulted in a download of child pornography from Noe's computer. A search warrant executed on May 29, 2008, resulted in the seizure of Noe's computer. Forensic analysis of the computer revealed 163 video files of child pornography. The videos had been downloaded from the Internet through the use of a peer-to-peer program. Noe was convicted after a jury trial. The jury returned verdicts of guilty on January 14, 2009.
